

On Sunday 5 february, Adventure in Music kicks off it's seventh 'Gigs for Families' series at the St. Patrick's Bandhall (next to the train station) with a trad session for lively music loving 'Children that Can't Sit Still!'

Adventures in Music is delighted to have world renowned accordion player, Máirtín O Connor, join fiddler Liz Kane and friends Jimmy Fitz (guitar), Daire O'Neil (flute and tin whistle) and Emma O'Sullivan (Sean Nos Dancer).

Traditional music fans nationwide will be familiar with the work of each of these performers but not everyone will know the work they do with children. Most of these performers regularly bring traditional music to national school children through out Galway. Emma O'Sullivan, All Ireland Oireachtas Sean Nos Champion, will no doubt to be an inspiration to all our little aspiring Irish dancers. This line up promises to provide a very lively and entertaining afternoon for young and not so young!

Tickets available at the door and mykidstime.ie or at the door. Tickets 5 euro per person, children under 2 free, Family Ticket 20 Euro. Doors open 2:00 for young children's pre-concert activities, 2:30 Concert, 3:15 Meet the musicians session.
